

PUPILS OF EL PASO SCHOOL FOR GIRLS GIVE PROGRAM OF GRACEFUL DANCES, MARCHES

By RUTH MONRO AUGUR.

MERRY games, graceful dances and, snappily performed marching tactics, formed the events of the annual demonstration of the physical training work of the El Paso School for Girls, given Thursday afternoon in the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian association.

A rather dramatic feature was the esthetic dance which closed the program, which was performed to the music of the "National Emblem" march. At the close of each girl drew forth from her necktie, a silk American flag which was held aloft at the climax. Following this all the girls of the school sang "The Star Spangled Banner," standing in a massed group while a big American flag was held up on each side. The audience rose for the national anthem.

Miss Georgina Martin, director of the physical training work of the school, was in charge of the demonstration. She was presented with a very large bouquet of long stemmed pink tulips at the close.

A very large audience of friends and patrons of the school were most interested and enthusiastic witnesses of the demonstration. All of the various drills, dances and exercises were well given, with a precision and an enthusiasm on the part of the students that was most commendable. The younger children in their games and folk dances quite delighted the people with the happy, unconscious spirit in which they were performed.

The opening number of the program was a grand march in which all the school participated.

Folk dancing followed the children dancing and singing. "The First of May" and "The Girl of the Year" were from the primary department. These were from the primary department.

Anita Andrews, Catherine Coles, Mary Josephine Evans, Elizabeth Finley, Edith Greathouse, Johnnie McElaine, Beattie Levenson, Margery May McNary, Esther Calvert Pickett, Gladys Primm, Virginia Smith, Edith Ann Walthall and Louise Wilson.

From the lower intermediate class: Caroline Cookley, Julie Hawkins, Evelyn Jamison, Elizabeth Kerr, Margaret Palm, Catherine Phillips, Elizabeth Ramey, Amanda Sienleaga and Helene West.

From the upper intermediate class: Manuela Baca, Janet Falconer, Esther Goodman, Lillian Harms, Helen Laumon, Mary Laws, Johnnie McElaine, Elizabeth McNary, Ruth McNary, Kathleen Orndorff, Dorothea Reinburg, Mary Alice Sayles, Ruth Silverman, Eleanor Slater, Eleanor Veale, Corinne Wagner and Rachel Weckerle.

Military tactics came next, executed by girls of the upper school. The same girls then performed a number of sprightly folk dances. Those taking part in this were:

Alethea Coffin, Louise Crawford, Katherine Dick, Eleanor Falconer, Lydia Happer, Dorothy Knott, Paula Krupp, Mildred Lassalle, Linda Laskin, Margaret Neff, Charlotte Orndorff, Ruth Rawlings, Betty Safford, Ruth Schwartz, Katherine White and Winifred Woods.

The girls of the second upper school class gave an interesting wand drill, executing some quite difficult figures. These girls were:

Patty Anna, Iva Ruth Armstrong, Octavia Cady, Alethea Coffin, Elsie Collins, Louise Crawford, Helen Eby, Doris Grothe, Mary Happer, Charlotte Harris, Paula Krupp, Frieda Laskin, Josephine Moritt, Margaret O'Connor, Margaret Orndorff, Alvin Orndorff, Rosemary Orndorff, Elizabeth Platt, Betty Safford, Minnie Silverman, Margaret Stevens, Madeline Terrazas and Katherine White.

The little primary children then delighted the audience by dancing a jolly Highland Fling.

Indian club swinging was given by the upper school girls who had previously performed the military tactics. These girls also danced "Alargilla," an esthetic dance.

The pupils from the entire school then played a series of games and held relay running and walking races which aroused quite a bit of excitement.

The upper school girls then danced "The National Emblem" with its dramatic finale.

All of the girls wore white middie, black ties and dark blue, very full bloomers.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Early Spots.
How to Remove Easily.
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength ointment as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.
